

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
APRIL 1 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A weekly half-hour public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS SUMMER SPECIAL: "HELPING FEELS GOOD" - A half-hour quarterly special consisting of a series of reports showing how CBS4's Neighbors 4 Neighbors provided support and assistance to South Florida residents in need during the second quarter of 2012. Broadcast dates and times as indicated on the report.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: spinal cord injuries research; workplace fitness; help for families coping with autism; help for cancer survivors; stroke awareness; help for people with visual impairments; help for families with hospitalized children; anti-obesity programs; new magazine for families of children with special needs; and campaign to fight childhood obesity.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 4/1, 10 AM. Mark Buoniconti, CEO, the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis discussed the research that they are doing to bring hope to people with spinal injuries. In another segment, Hans Huseby, co-director, Mercedes-Benz Corporate Run discussed the annual Downtown Miami event that fosters team-building and work-place fitness. 4/22, 10 AM. Rixys Alfonso, Dan Marino Foundation, and Nicky Tesser, director of marketing for Panera Bread discussed their joint fund raising campaign "A Touchdown For Autism" and the Foundation's programs for people with Autism. In another segment Dr. Jennifer Durocher, assistant director, UM-NSU Center for Autism and Related Disorders, and Marie-Ilene Whitehurst, co-chair, Tropical Nights discussed their upcoming fundraising event for this South Florida organization that helps people with Autism and their families find the resources they need. In a third segment, Claudelle Joseph, Northwest Dade Relay For Life, and Arlene Speed, American Cancer Society discussed the Northwest Dade Relay For Life, an event that celebrates cancer survivors, raises awareness, and helps the American Cancer Society continue its life-saving work. 5/6, 10 AM. Elizabeth Martinez, American Heart Association volunteer discussed Stroke Awareness Month and what can be done to prevent strokes with proper nutrition, medication and regular exercise. 5/27, 10 AM Noah Ohlsen and Adam Mopsick, organizers of a fundraiser benefitting SeeFit discussed how young athletes across South Florida are raising awareness for children and adults with visual impairments. 6/3, 10 AM. Soraya Rivera-Moya, Executive Director, Ronald McDonald House Charities of South Florida shared plans for the celebration of Ronald McDonald House Charities of South Florida 30th anniversary. In another segment, David DiPasquale, Nutrition and life coach discussed an anti-obesity program to help children and adults lose weight and stay fit. 6/10, 10 AM. Michelle Arean, editor of "Unique Me", Claudia Uribe-Orrett, Publisher, and Michelle Coffey-Garcia, Managing Editor discussed their new magazine that focuses on resources available for families of children with physical, medical, mental, emotional, behavioral, and educational special needs and their typically developing siblings. 6/17, 10 AM. Cyrus Jollivette, Chairman, Florida Blue Foundation and Jeffrey Lagomacini, Special Program Director, City of Hialeah discussed Embrace Healthy Florida a statewide initiative to help fight against childhood obesity.

FAMILY: Topics in this category include: special ball park for children with disabilities; project to redesign homes of wounded soldiers; event in support of Mothers Against Drunk Drivers; run to benefit family charities; gospel event for families; program for fathers; program to empower men and boys; fundraising event for Big Brothers Big Sisters; help for families of multiple babies; baseball league for special needs children; rebuilding homes for people in need; families recovering from storm; clothing drive; help for youth organization victim of crime; furniture donation for needy families; help for families of seriously ill children; volunteers help fire victim; and food drive for local feeding programs.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 4/29, 10 AM. Joanne Messing, Miami Marlins Community Foundation, and Karl Sturge, executive board co-chair, Miracle League of Miami-Dade discussed how the Miami Marlins Community Foundation and the Miracle League of Miami-Dade have teamed up to share the fun of baseball with all children, including those with special needs. In another segment, Leslie Loewenthal, outreach coordinator, Military Room Makeover Program, and Craig Urbine, president, Dania Beach Design District discussed their project that helps disabled veterans and their families by redesigning their homes to fit their special needs. In a third segment, David Pinkser, state executive director, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and Heather Geronemus, Broward chapter of MADD discussed an upcoming event that supports the Broward chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Driving. 5/6, 10 AM. David Samson, Miami Marlins president discussed his 52 mile run to raise money for ten local charities benefitting local families. 5/27, 10 AM. Travis "T-DOGG" Gammage, Gospel artist and Deerfield Beach native discussed an upcoming gospel music festival that also includes education and family enrichment programs. 6/10, 10 AM. Holly Zwerling, President of Fatherhood Task Force discussed her program to support fathers to become more involved in their children's lives and an upcoming Father's Day awards program and festival. 6/17, 10 AM. Dwyane Wade, Sr. discussed Propops a foundation started by Dwyane Wade, Sr. the father of NBA Miami Heat player Dwyane Wade. He explained that the goal of the organization is to empower fathers to create a coalition of men and youths who are committed, active, responsible, and engaged. 6/24, 10 AM. DJ Irie, Miami Heat DJ discussed the 8th annual "DJ Irie Weekend" celebration that benefits the local Big Brother Big Sister program.

FAMILY (continued)

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS SUMMER SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: 6/24, 10:30 AM. This special broadcast provided highlights of some of the best stories involving families by Neighbors 4 Neighbors during the second quarter of the year. The special included reports on: the Molina quintuplets and the help that the family received from the Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade; the Miracle League and their partnership with the Miami Marlins to build a ball park for children with special needs; how the Rebuilding Together project is using volunteers to rebuild homes for families in need living in Homestead; how families whose homes were destroyed by Hurricane Andrews nearly 20 years ago have recovered; a partnership between Camillus House and local dry cleaners to collect used clothes for the homeless; how the community responded to a break-in at the YMCA in Hollywood by donating funds to replace stolen television sets; a project between Neighbors 4 Neighbors and El Dorado Furniture to donate $5,000 worth of furniture to needy families as part of the 45 Years 45 Families El Dorado anniversary celebration; how the Starlight Children's Foundation raised funds for the Starlight's Great Escapes program – giving families with seriously ill children an opportunity to forget the medical challenges they're facing both in and out of the hospital; how Neighbors 4 Neighbors helped recruit a team of 50 to help a volunteer contractor begin rebuilding the home of a grandmother in Broward who lost everything in a house fire; and how Neighbors 4 Neighbors teamed up with Publix Supermarkets in the Food 4 All campaign which raised funds for 81 local charities and collected 1.7 million dollars in funding.

ECONOMY/ENVIRONMENT: Topics in this category include: preservation of historical building and award program for successful black business executives.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 6/1, 10 AM. Dr. Janie Greenleaf, president, Ancient Spanish Monastery Foundation, and Father Gregory Mansfield, curator, Ancient Spanish Monastery discussed the historical Spanish Monastery and their efforts to preserve it as an unique place of tranquility, beauty, and history. 6/3, 10 AM Dexter Bridgeman, Legacy Publisher and Michelle Spence-Jones, Miami City Commissioner and honoree discussed Legacy 100, a "Legacy Magazine" program honoring the 100 most powerful and influential black businesses and leaders in South Florida.

EDUCATION: Topics in this category include: children's theatre; after school program for middle school students; art program for schools, summer camp teaching reading and math; program to prepare middle school students for higher education; youth media program at local public library; summer reading program; vocational college for young adults with special needs; and school supplies drive.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 5/6, 10 AM. Earl Maulding, director of Theatre for Young Audiences at the Actors Playhouse at the Miracle Theatre discussed the Actors Playhouse Theatre for Young Audiences presentation of a classic with an important nutritional message, "Peter Rabbit and the Garden of Doom." In another segment, Sean Prospect, deputy executive director, and Carlos Zumpano, board member of After-School All-Stars, a program stressing academics, health and fitness, and enrichment activities helps at-risk middle school students succeed. 5/13, 10 AM. Elizabeth Acosta, Education Fund director of special projects, and Peter DeMercado, art teacher at Banyan Elementary discussed the Education Fund's Art of Found Objects Art Auction that provides art students and teachers the opportunity to create artwork with recycled materials and sell them to support the classroom. 5/20, 10 AM. David Castrillon, executive director, Read 2 Succeed discussed their Fun 'n' Learn" Summer Camp that helps elementary school students learn reading and math skills while having fun. 6/10, 10 AM. Alicia Rodriguez Bower, Executive Director and Elissa Vanaver, Director of Development discussed Breakthrough Miami, a program that provides a six-week summer institute and Saturday programs during the school year to prepare middle school students from low-income communities to attend college-prep high schools and four-year colleges and universities. 6/17, 10 AM. Victoria Galan, Miami-Dade Public library system and Sabine Dantus, YOUmedia librarian discussed a new program at the North Dade regional library that uses innovation and exploration of technology to allow teens to tell and record their stories by using their new digital skills. 6/24, 10 AM. Nancy Murray, Broward County libraries discussed the Broward County Library Summer Reading Program, a campaign in partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Broward County libraries to encourage students to read books during the summer school break.

NEIGHBORS 4 NEIGHBORS SUMMER SPECIAL: HELPING FEELS GOOD: 6/24, 10:30 AM. This special broadcast provided highlights of some of the best stories involving education by Neighbors 4 Neighbors during the second quarter of the year. The special included reports on: how the Dan Marino Foundation has served families and children with special needs for the past 20 years and their new project to establish the Dan Marino Vocational School for young adults with special needs; and a special campaign in partnership with the Children's Services Council and Neat Stuff For Kids to collect donations for school supplies, uniforms and clothing for students living in foster care, shelters and in distress

CRIME/PUBLIC SAFETY: Topics in this category include: Florida's Stand Your Ground Law; free programs to protect Florida drivers; programs to protect bicyclists and pedestrians; insurance payouts for Holocaust victims; and hurricane recovery.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 4/15, 10 AM. State Representative Dwight Bullard (D, District 118); Professor Tamara Lawson, St. Thomas University School of Law; Director Robert Parker, Miami-Dade Police Department (retired); Rev. G. Vincent Lewis, associate pastor, Antioch Missionary Baptist Church, Miami Gardens; and Rev. Gary Johnson, Clergy For Change discussed issues raised by the death of Trayvon Martin, including Florida's controversial Stand Your Ground Law, the workings of the justice system, racial profiling, and the obstacles facing young African-American men. 5/20, 10 AM. Alicia Torrez, Florida Department of Transportation discussed the Road Rangers and 511 Traffic Service free programs from the Florida Department of Transportation to make driving in South Florida roads safer and less stressful. In another segment, Dr. Mickey Witte, Bike Safe manager, University of Miami Miller School of Medicine discussed their program that teaches children and parents how to be safe cyclists and pedestrians. 5/27, 10 AM. CBS4 Investigative Reporter Michele Gillen discussed problems with the insurance payouts for Holocaust victims which, according to one Florida lawmaker, are unjust. 6/24, 10 AM. Lissette Gonzalez, CBS4 Meteorologist discussed the 2012 hurricane season and the 20th anniversary of Hurricane Andrew.